

Before you go outsourcing,
make sure there are strings attached.

Entering the world of outsourcing business systems development and maintenance means greater flexibility for your entire organisation.

But you shouldn't go out until you find the right company to partner you. With people who understand your business. People who can guide you through the swift, technological changes transforming your world. People who can give you the freedom not merely to grow, but to soar.

No one can do all of this better than Expert Software Services. Because our business focus is to build multi-platform client/server solutions designed to help you work the way you want to, not the way you have to.

We're able to exceed the high performance goals set by our customers because we're focused on meeting their needs. We've honed our skills at providing the services in which we specialise.

We desire to be your business systems development and maintenance partner. Because if you have a clear set of goals and objectives in mind, we know we can deliver the benefits of outsourcing, even with strings attached. And we'll do what it takes to achieve this goal with unwavering commitment.

So please call Expert Software Services today on 03 9320 6100. Or check us out online at <http://www.expert.com.au>. Because even in an outsourcing world, it's still important to make the right connections.
